

Source	Current: Is the information current? When was it published? Has it been revised or updated?	Relevant: How relevant is the information to your research? Who was the intended audience? Is this appropriate for your audience?	Authority: Where did the information come from? Who is the author affiliated with? What are their credentials? Who funded their research?	Accuracy: Is the information reliable? Is it supported by evidence? Is there bias? Do you recognize this information?	Purpose: Why does this information exist? Where did it come from? Does it have an agenda or a specific audience? Is it clear? Is it objective? Is it impartial?
